

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

I would like to express my sincere gratitude & thanks to our Department (Department of Computer Science) for their constant guidance, encouragement and support throughout the course of this project. We are thankful to our batch mates and friends for their support and being such a good company. We extend our gratitude to researchers & scholars whose papers and thesis have been utilized in our project. Finally, we thank our family for their love, support and encouragement without which this would not have been possible.

I am also grateful to Dr. Joyti Pareek for their kindness, support, and feedback in various stages of this research work.
